African Studies Association (ASA) will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the first Annual Meeting during the 51st Annual Meeting at the Sheraton Chicago Hotel and Towers. The African Studies Association [http://www.africanstudies.org] is a non-profit organization of scholars, policy makers, and other specialists on Africa.

For four days the conference will bring over 2000 scholars, development officials, government representatives, artists, linguists, language teachers, performers, and technicians who specialize on Africa to Chicago.

Some of the main events at the ASA Conference will be the Teachers Workshop. The Teacher’s Workshop is a day-long Africa centered professional development workshop for K-12 educators and librarians in the Chicago metropolitan area.

TOPOCS: Health, history, music, art, history, philosophy, geography, African aesthetics, popular culture, and contemporary politics, to name a few.

WHERE: Sheraton Chicago Hotel and Towers
301 East North Water Street
Chicago, IL 60611

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: K-12, pre-service teachers, Community College instructors

REGISTRATION FEE: $50

CREDIT: The teachers’ workshop offers professional development credit.

APPLICATION: The application is online at http://www.africanstudies.org