A Saint in the City: Sufi Arts of Urban Senegal was organized and produced by the UCLA Fowler Museum of Cultural History, and curated by Dr. Mary Nooter Roberts and Dr. Allen F. Roberts in collaboration with Senegalese community leaders and artists in both Dakar and Los Angeles. It was made possible by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, promoting excellence in the humanities. Additional support was provided by the UCLA James S. Coleman African Studies Center.

Exhibition sponsored in part by the Krannert Art Museum Council and Hampton Inn. Programming sponsored in part by the Center for African Studies with the help of the Center for Advanced Studies, the Department of Anthropology, Global Crossroads/University Housing, the Program in South Asian and Middle Eastern Studies, Program for the Study of Religion, the School of Music, and U.S. Department of Education.

Art-To-Go

Art-To-Go is a mobile outreach program offered free of charge to the children of East Central Illinois. We visit schools, libraries, community centers, churches, after-school programs and other institutions that serve children.

Each visit includes a lively presentation of the visual culture of urban Senegal, followed by a hands-on art activity.

All supplies are provided by the museum, and visits last 1.5 to 2 hours.

Contact Nick Pelafas at 217-244-4173 or saintatkrannert@gmail.com

Exhibition Tours

Explore Senegalese Visual Culture!!!

We offer guided tours of the exhibition “A Saint in the City: Sufi Arts of Urban Senegal”

In addition to guided tours, we offer an optional visit to your classroom in preparation for your upcoming museum visit.

Available for all school age groups, community center groups, church groups, after-school programs, and other community institutions.
