Educators Workshop on Teaching African Film

Saturday, February 9, 2008
8:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

International Studies Building, 910 S. Fifth St., Champaign University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

Cost: FREE!

AUDIENCE: Faculty, K-12 teachers, and instructors who teach languages, social studies, literature, history, and/or world cultures will benefit from this workshop

TOPICS:

- Champaign-Urbana’s First African Film Festival, Feb. 22–28, 2008 at Beverly Cinemas, Champaign
- History of African film
- Methods for integrating African cinema into the K-12, community college, and university curriculum
- Discussion

TAKE AWAY:

- Curricular materials and resources
- Free tickets to African Film Festival
- CPDUs
- Lunch provided

Organized by the Center for African Studies
Funded in part by the U.S. Department of Education Title VI grant.
TEL. 333-6335